

One killed, two injured in Russian strikes on Kherson

19.11.2024, 22:11

A 35-year-old man was killed, and two others were injured in a Russian artillery strike on the Dniproviskyi district of Kherson.

Kherson Regional Governor Oleksandr Prokudin announced this in a Telegram post, according to Ukrinform.

"Unfortunately, the Russian army claimed the life of another resident of the Kherson region. In the Dniproviskyi district, a 35-year-old man was killed in an artillery strike," Prokudin said.

He added that the man succumbed to fatal blast injuries.

The attack also injured two people, a man and a woman.

Oleksandr Panasiuk