

Powerful explosions rock Zaporizhzhia region

12.10.2024, 06:07

During an air raid alert overnight Saturday, a series of massive blasts was heard in Zaporizhzhia region.

That's according to Ivan Fedorov, the head of the regional military administration, who reported the news on Telegram, Ukrinform saw.

"Explosions in Zaporizhzhia region," he noted in the post.

Before that, the Air Force warned residents of a ballistic missile threat across the region.

Later, Ukrinform's own correspondent reported on another powerful explosion in Zaporizhzhia.

As Ukrinform reported earlier, a Russian strike targeted Sumy late Friday evening.
